

Downtown Public Library

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA

Concept:
Programmatic Stacking

Techniques:
Passive Climate

This project required the development of form to come from wood block massing strategies. This led to a design concept of purely programmatic massing. I added a small outdoor auditorium to the site enhancing the local library district's theme of libraries serving as cultural centers. West and East walls avoid glazing to prevent direct solar gain similar to the Phoenix Public Library.

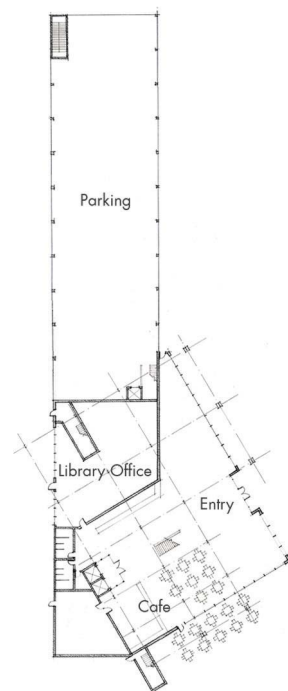

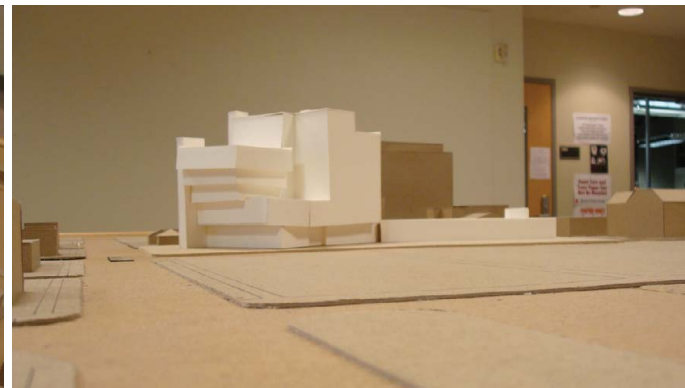

Specific Site Plan

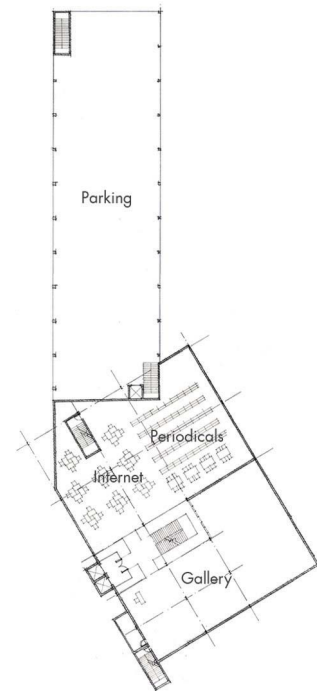

Overall Site Plans

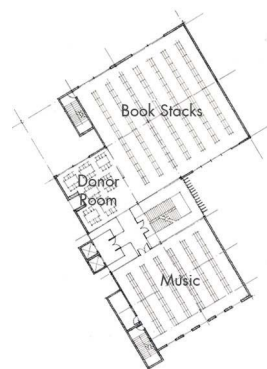

First Floor
12

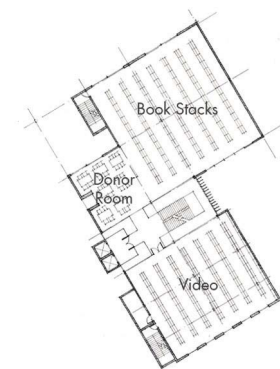

Second Floor

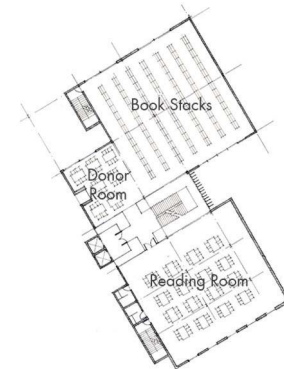

Site Model

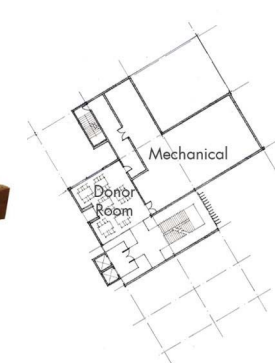

Third Floor

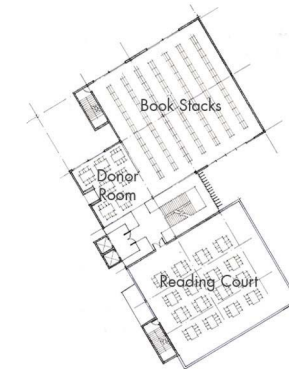

Fourth Floor

Fifth Floor

Seventh Floor

Sixth Floor

